

Supporting Relocating Families to Southwest London

A local resource for HR & Global Mobility teams

Home & School is an independent specialist consultancy. We provide practical, local support to families relocating to southwest London. We work alongside HR teams and existing relocation providers to help families settle quickly and confidently.

The challenge for HR teams

When employees relocate to London with families, the most time-consuming and sensitive issues often sit outside standard relocation packages:

- Understanding family-friendly local areas
- Navigating the UK school system and admissions timelines
- Supporting children through school transitions
- Managing repeated questions without over-burdening HR teams

Why HR teams choose Home & School

- ✓ Reduces HR time spent on schooling and local queries
- ✓ Improves employee confidence and settling-in
- ✓ Specialist local expertise in SW London
- ✓ Independent, confidential support for families

We act as a trusted local extension of your relocation support – without replacing existing providers.

Core Services

Support is modular and tailored – families access only the services they need, when they need them.

Relocation advice & virtual property viewings

- Local area guidance aligned with family priorities
- Virtual property viewings with clear written feedback

School Match Reports

- Clear guidance on suitable state and independent schools
- Personalised written reports families can refer back to

Tutoring support during transition

- Academic support during school or curriculum changes

How we typically work with employers (simple & low-touch)

1. HR teams signpost relocating employees to Home & School
2. Families engage directly and confidentially
3. Support is tailored to each family's needs
4. No ongoing obligation or minimum volume

Contact: Matthew Howorth | Home & School

 matt@homeandschool.co.uk

 www.homeandschool.co.uk

Pricing & Engagement Model

Simple, flexible support for HR teams

Engagement Approach

Home & School operates a referral-based model designed to keep HR involvement light while ensuring families receive high-quality, specialist support.

- No contracts or retainers required
- No additional HR administration
- Scales easily with relocation volume

Indicative pricing guidance

Exact fees depend on family needs and scope. Clear quotes are always provided before work begins. All pricing is indicative and scoped individually to reflect each relocation's complexity.

Relocation advice & virtual property viewings

- Relocation orientation from £350
- Structured virtual viewing packages from £1,250
- Full property-finding support from £3,500
- Virtual viewings and written reports priced per property or package

School Match Reports

- From £500 per child
- Includes consultation, tailored guidance and written report

Tutoring support

- Priced according to subject, level and duration
- Delivered directly or via trusted partner firms

Who pays for the service?

Employers choose the approach that best fits internal policy:

Option 1: Employee-funded (most common)

- The employee engages Home & School directly
- Fees agreed transparently in advance
- No cost or administration for the employer

Option 2: Employer-funded or reimbursed

- Employer covers or reimburses agreed services
- Suitable for senior or international hires
- Invoices provided as required

Option 3: Blended approach

- Employer funds core relocation support
- Employee opts into additional services independently

Contact

Matthew Howorth | Home & School

 matt@homeandschool.co.uk  www.homeandschool.co.uk

Happy to provide further information or arrange a brief, informal conversation.